

During a meeting of the University of California Board of Regents yesterday in San Francisco, UC President Mark Yudof backed Lt. Governor John Garamendi's accelerated medical education proposal.